“ My heart aches so much. I've known Mimi for half my life. I remember first meeting Mimi - she was so welcoming to me. She always made me feel at home and as the years went on always made me feel like a part of the family. I can't recall when it started but for as long as I can remember whenever she saw me she would say "My Donald." It made me feel so loved, so special.

She was the quintessential mother - loving, warm, always offering food and drink and NEVER raising her voice. The woman was a saint...and now is a saint. The only thing that makes me just a little less sad is that she has now joined her love, Stan, and they can be together again.

I will always miss her.
