“ Mom taught me the importance of being a good person and doing the right thing. So many good memories of playing the piano for her, Rosie, and dad, learning how to bake, how proud she was when I graduated from Purdue. I hope she is smiling down on all of us now, proud of who we've all become. Rest well, mom, you've earned it.

“ Mom was one of a kind. How she raised six of us kids and adopted a grandchild and raised him has boggled my mind for years. She used to tell us stories of when she met dad and got married. They split a doughnut for breakfast on their wedding day. Rest in peace mom. And know that you were loved by all of us. Your oldest daughter, Linda.

Aunt Maxine was my last living Aunt. She was always kind and loving. I remember when we were all young the families would get together and we could spend precious time with them and our cousins. Most the times these gatherings took place on Grandma Vaughn's front porch and sidewalk. Those were some of my favorite memories.
