Tribute Wall

“ Hi - My mother, Edna Gilroy-Smith(age 85), and I were very sorry to hear of your father\'s passing. I even remember the beauty salon. My mother told me a story that I just had to pass along to you. My mother would take the same Gary city bus(from Miller) to work each morning in the late 40\'s just like your father did. Every morning about a third of the way to Gary, an elderly woman would get on the bus and every morning your father would get up and give her his seat. She said he was always that kind of wonderful person. Our best to your family.
