“Megan and I made so many happy memories at Buckley Homestead and at MOMCC conferences. She was wonderful to all of my children and grandchildren, too, and we already miss her so much. She meant so much to those of us at the park. Sending much love to all of her family and friends.

“Megan was always the first face my sisters and I saw at Buckley when we reenacted with our mom (21 years of seeing her!!!). 🥰 Her name and smiling face is synonymous with the warm memories we have reenacting. Even though I'm 25 now, Megan was always there, rain or shine, to make sure we were OK and warm. 🥰

“Megan was the mother of the "boy-next-door" and true to the responsibility of that position, she provided advice well beyond my years of appreciation. Megan made the impending doom of adulthood seem less scary. She encouraged us neighborhood girls to build our future first and then families (if we wanted them). She always had that one-liner ...that quip... that would leave you laughing as the screen door shut.

One Halloween JR and his friends hosted a Halloween scavenger hunt. I, for a bit, was the only girl there. She raised a son that didn't make that a scary situation as JR and his friends were all respectable and kind. She made sure those who wanted to be included were included (in a subtle and loving way) It made the night all the more fun.

My favorite memory was junior prom, when I stopped by because she had insisted she see us all dressed up. She found something specific about each of us to adore and built up our confidence in such a beautiful way.

Megan -The world is less without your kindness - freely given and hilariously served.

I just heard of Megan's passing and it brought back memories of when we were in 4H together. She will be remembered for sharing fond memories together.

We are devastated that Megan has passed away. She was part of our WOOF PACK - dog walkers at the Crown Point Fairgrounds and a kind, generous and loving friend. When she and Dom met and married, we were thrilled for them both and they were so happy! She took wonderful care of him. They were loved by everyone and we will miss her so much and all the fun times as a group we shared from breakfasts, restaurant dining, gatherings at each others homes, games and dances. She was an energetic friend and generous to everyone. Her lovely spirit will live on in all of us and we will miss her zest for life forever..
