

Mirjanka "Mira" Letic

January 31, 1951 - December 15, 2025

Mirjanka "Mira" Damjanoska Letic, Belgrade, was born January 31, 1951, in Struga, Macedonia to Christopher and Filomena Damjanovski. She died December 15, 2025, at the age of 74.

She married Milan Letic on October 17, 1970, in Struga, Macedonia and were married for 35 years until his death in 2005.

Mira lived in Beograd Serbia with Milan until 1976 when they moved to the United States settling in Northwest Indiana and raising two children.

Much of Mira's time was spent in her hobbies which include word searches, traveling, cooking, and spending time with her family. Mira was a foodie and loved going to new restaurants and trying new foods.

Mira loved to travel overseas to see family in Beograd and Struga. She also annually went to Tennessee, which was one of her favorite places to go. Mira loved the beach, and in fact, anywhere there was water. She loved weekend road trips whether they were familiar to her or not.

While married, Mira and Milan never forgot to give back. They were very charitable, and after the passing of her husband, Mira continued to help as much as she could. The causes that were near to her heart were Riley's Children's Hospital, the American Cancer Society, and local community food banks.

Mira was preceded in death by her husband, Milan Letic; her brother Nikola Damjanovski and her sister-in-law Stana Letic.

She is survived by her son, Steve Letic and his wife Stephanie (Hamilton)

Letic, her daughter, Natasha (Letic) Yuhasz and her husband, Steve Yuhasz, her grandchildren, Milena Abigail, Olivia Anna, Joseph Milan and Eli Jameson, her sister Nada Arsovska, nieces in Beograd and Struga.
