“ Paul, Ryan, and Shawn,

We have such wonderful memories of Paul & Mollie playing Euchre with David & Judy Lines in Connersville on our snow days! We laughed until we cried. We can still hear Mollie's giggles! Then, we would all be amused when Paul (after he had just made the trump suit) would often ask: "what's trump?" 😂

We also remember when Mollie destroyed their vacuum cleaner trying to keep baby Ryan asleep! Mollie was a dear friend and simply a delight to know. She will truly be missed!!! Guys, please keep in touch!!!

*With our love and sincere sympathy, 🙏

“ Paul, I am so sorry about Mollie. I haven't seen you guys since I left Connersville, but I can still hear her giggle! I always admired her passion for teaching and how much she cared about her students. You and your family have my deepest sympathy, “ Mollie lived just down the street from me & another CHS classmate on 21st street in Connersville. Sometimes we'd all walk to high school together- only a couple blocks away. I remember her being so sweet & polite. Bless her heart & wishes of prayers & comfort to her family.
