“ We sometimes used to call Monty the lumbering bear. Teddy bear might be more appropriate. He could be tough when he needed to be but always had a heart of gold. He was loyal and when you were his friend there was nothing he would not do for you. He was my friend and I am a better person for that. Lex Venditti

“ Such a great guy Monty Joe was. He was extremely proud to be a brother Ironworker from Hammond Local 395. Monty could be a bit of a prankster, huh guys?!!!!

His children, well, he was very proud,protective, and loved them deeply. Josh, following in the generational footprint of becoming an Ironworker. Josh's son Devlin, the BEST gift ever, making him "Papa" ❤️ Sgt. Nicholas Haynes joined the Army shortly after 9/11. Met a lovely girl Aiza, gave Papa his little Princess Addie",Niko & Avianna making Papa's world even brighter!

Matthew played Soccer in College while studying Mech.

Engineering, but changed his career path to join the Army as well. Matthew is now a WO2, Matthew married Natasha, bringing forth, Nicholas, Papa's buddy, then the twins Logan & Lukas! His eyes were like fourth of July fireworks when, Sweet Beautiful Katie arrived! How can I even express his love for her.....She lit up his world like Christmas morning 🌟❤️ Monty was so happy when she started college,shes going to be a nurse. Monty was so very proud of all his children, knowing him,meant you knew of his children & grandchildren (bragging rights!!) Monty's life was full of people that loved him. He was the exceptional patient, Seven yrs ago when he had the first of his transplants. His humor,respect and appreciation for all those that helped him was remarkable, many of those that gave him new life kept in touch with him! Monty left a little bit of himself with all that knew him. We will miss you big guy. Truly resting peacefully now..
