“ Although distance often kept our families separate, I feel lucky to have known my mom's oldest sister Nancy, no matter how short our time together. I am impressed with your long and noble career of nursing. Your caring qualities and quiet kindness live on in your sons. May you rest in peace and welcome my mom/your baby sister Claudia as I'm sure you welcomed your beautiful sister Susan. Grandma Coker has her three girls with her now and we all have four strong angels looking after those left behind. <3
