

Natalie Ann Lucas

June 26, 1967 - June 13, 2024

Natalie Ann Lucas, born on June 26, 1967, in Gary Indiana, sadly passed away on June 13, 2024, with her husband Tom by her side.

Natalie graduated from Merrillville High School and went on to study education at Ball State University where she was a member of Alpha Phi Sorority. After graduating she became a flight attendant at United Airlines prior to starting her teaching career at Fegley Middle School.

Natalie was a devoted teacher who loved interacting with her students. Natalie and Tom enjoyed traveling and went on many wonderful adventures. Natalie loved watching old classic TV shows.

She is survived by her husband Tom Lucas and her mother Betty Saylor.

Per Natalie's wishes, no funeral or memorial service will be held. In lieu of flowers we invite contributions to Hobart Humane society www.hshobart.com and or Susan G Komen www.komen.org Burns Funeral Home & Crematory entrusted with arrangements.

“ Natalie was one of Shawn's favorite teachers. She allowed him to eat lunch in her classroom and made sure he could get a treat at lunch. She would make sure he had a snack when he stayed in her classroom for study tables and walked him to the car. She was patient with him and helped him with his work. You were an amazing and caring teacher. Prayers to your family!
