“ Neda was a tiny woman of stature yet had a big heart filled with gold. She made every one feel welcome and certainly love for her family shined in not only her face but in everything she spoke of. You could instantly tell she had served as a mentor for many for a long time. May her passing to a new life be blessed by all she did in serving others and may God bless all her family members surrounding them with loving thoughts and beautiful remembrances of her. Sincerely, Elaine Criswell (friend of Kevin, her son)
