“ My Son and my best friend I love you kid with all my heart, your smiling face was the joy in my life . From the times you were small eating breakfast with me in the morning to teaching you how to play soccer and redirecting you anger for not getting soccer lol. I was always you biggest critic and fan in everything you did and never gave up on you. You were looking forward in being a much better adult and even trying to get you own peaceful place. Your life was cut sort too soon and I will miss you forever and a day, my heart is broken and I cant believe your gone. Until the next time my Son cant wait to see you again on the stair way to the moon.
