“ The year that Chicago was having the rolling brownouts, I had a friend in town. We didn't want to go out in the heat, so Noah had come over to hang out with us. He had us in absolute stitches we were laughing so hard. That was a great day. Rest in Power Noah, you're free now. 💔

What a disgusting human being writing dumb stuff on someone's obituary when his 3 kids see this.. grow up. Everyone has their own opinions about Noah but let the man rest.
