“ My fondest memory of my beautiful granddaughter was in Tennessee when we were at the aquarium and popped her head through the clear tube to see all the penguins. She lit up like a Christmas tree she loved penguins. The smile on her face was like I'd never seen before. You will always have a special place in my heart. You will be missed by many. I have always loved you and always will my beautiful granddaughter. May you Rest In Peace. You're a beautiful angel now. Love Grandma

“ From the moment I met Noell she showed compassion and empathy for those around her. She always talked about how much her dad and Bri meant to her and how she wanted to make them proud and see them be happy. You never put yourself first. No matter what was going on, she always showed love to those close to her.

Before getting to really know her she doesn't show it, but she is one of the goofiest people you will ever meet, i remember laughing so much on our long road trip because she would always try to talk in these silly voices and do impressions of people. We never needed to have plans to have fun because that was the type of person you were, you just made everything better. Although we grew apart I know you continued to make people laugh and smile on any occasion and be a light during dark moments. I have never been so close to another person Noell, I'm sending prayers to you and you're family, and want you to know that the world lost an absolutely beautiful soul.

“ How can I pick a favorite memory when I have so many with you? Like when we would stay up all night playing Glee Karoke and Just Dance in the basement. Or when dad had to skip most of our songs in the car after they got 3 strikes (sorry dad). Or having to make you velveeta mac and cheese because you “didn't know how”. Or skipping choir to hang out with you in robotics. Or when we almost got stranded in the middle of the Arizona Dessert. Or when we pet that cactus because it looked soft (don't do that, it was no soft). Or when we got our matching tattoos in Vegas. Or all our deep conversations about life. Or when we went to Glamis with Dad. I think was one of the best days of my life. I am so thankful I got to experience so much of my life with you. It's been a privilege being your big sister. I miss you so much. I promise to carry on your work and legacy. Rest easy sissy ❤️

“ One of the funniest memories I have of you was when you would only eat one hot dog around us when we first met. You told me many years later that you went into the bathroom and ate more. You will be missed by so many. Love you, beautiful.

“ My earliest memory with you is sitting next to you in Mr. Saksa’s social studies class and how we passed notes through our lockers everyday. Thanks for showing me fall out boy songs, doing that gym dance with me, and sharing your writing. Thank you for being a good friend. I miss you tremendously.
