“ We are so sorry for your loss. In his short life he was blessed to have such a loving family, and such great friends, some people go through their whole lives without a family that cares and loves them. It's tragic his condition took his life but that does not diminish all the love he gave and was given. God bless your family during this sad time.

“ My heart is really heavy. Nolan was a really good friend to me ever since I met him my eighth-grade year. He was always making me laugh. A few years ago I needed help with homework. He was always staying after school to help me.

I would always enjoy his company and listen to his stories as we would procrastinate on working. When he was done teaching me I would always feel the need to repay him for the help he gave me. It didn't matter if there was a blizzard outside I would drive over to his house to give him cookies.

He had an amazing heart, and I will never forget him. He was someone I always enjoyed being around. I'm going to keep your family in my prayers and thoughts through this hard time.

“ So sorry for your loss.....Nolan was a beautiful person inside and out. Bob and I have great memories of sharing the the trip to Australia with people to people back in 2011. Nolan had a fun laugh and was very adventurous. I can see him diving the great barrier reef and taking his vest off to dive deep when everyone else kept following the leader. He enjoyed the Kangaroos and had a mean karate chop when everyone else struggled at the task. We enjoyed seeing him grow and learn on that trip and we will forever treasure those memories. Our hearts and prayers go out for the wonderful family. Bob and Betty Teske

I was so honored to be at his delivery! 10 pounds 4 ounces of pure joy❤️ and giving him his first bath!!....then as a toddler, he'd hang out in the doctors lounge while his mommy did her rounds! Nolan LOVED his chocolate doughnuts and chocolate milk!! Engrossed in his cartoons!! Seems like he went from this cute little toddler to a grown stunning you man overnight!! So handsome...Nolan will be forever in our hearts 💔*
