“ My mother was a wonderful giving woman. Through her life she has jumped many hurdles and come acrossed many challenges but she always lfaced those challenges head on. She has taken care of many people and always without hesitation. When her grandchildren came along there was nothing and no one more important than those children. She gave and gave no matter what. Her entire world was wrapped and focused entirely upon her family. Her family was the bright sunshine in her life. Our world will forever have a void in it with the loss of my mother!!
