“ I too grew up down the street from Shea, during high school. One of my absolute best friends, a truly creative guy. Shea loved music and anything to do with it, he was a talented producer, and I'm listening to his music as I type this. I have fond memories of us playing computer games, going to arcades to play DDR and In The Groove, and hanging out with our other friends. He will truly be missed, love you buddy!

“ I grew up down the street from Shea. I remember always seeing him outside, we'd both ride bikes up and down the street. I remember him coming over to play kickball, jump on my trampoline and just other stuff kids do. Shea was awesome and always marched to the beat of his own drum. A true and original individual! I've always loved Shea!
