From the day we met 42 years ago, we were the best of friends. One thousand miles could not separate us. We share so many great trips and memories, joys and heartaches. Whenever we had the opportunity to get together, Pam would always have the calendar filled with things to do. She loved life and so much it had to offer. You couldn't help loving whatever she loved, her love was contagious. Every activity dulls without her. She was totally devoted to her family and it shows in the women her daughters became. I know she in the glowing presence of Jesus but many times a day, the shock that she's gone from us hits me. God speed, Pam. Love you Laurinases.
