“ I likely met Ronnie as a kid, but I didn't know him. But I was at my 88-year-old father's house yesterday going through some old vinyl records and found this record from the Humblaires—Master of the Sea. I remember listening to it as a kid. My father was a pastor nearly all his working life and I think the Humblaires performed a concert at one of his churches. I searched the Humblaires after finding this record and stumbled onto Ronnie's obituary and decided to share. I am sure his life and music touched a lot of people.

“ To the Cox Family. I am so sorry for your loss. I met Ronnie years ago when they came to sing at 29th Avenue Baptist Church where I played piano. Loved the Humbelaires and the music. Ronnie is looking down and watching over all of us. He was loved by many.
