“ Fond memories of Maryland Street. Wish I could be there comforting you all. I remember the days playing in our yards and looking at Big Mitch's beautiful garden and our mothers gabbing in the front yard. Peace and God Bless. My love and deepest sympathies. Randy Z and family

“ Pat, your bright smile and warm personality will be missed. You and my mom were like two peas in a pod. You were always so kind and generous to my mom, dad, and our family. Have a great reunion with Mitch, Helen, Joe, and the rest of the gang. Heaven is sure getting crowded with some great people. You and my parents were the last of a great generation of people who really sacrificed and lived for their kids. You shined a light on so much in our lives that was good.
