“ My dear cousin. The only person I would share my invisible friend with as a child. So many memories with you as a child, a teen and an adult. You were an angel here on earth, but God needed another angel in Heaven. No pain, no sorrow. May you eternally celebrating a life well lived. Forever in my heart.

I met Patty when she sold her house....she and her family touched my heart. She was a great lady and I considered her my friend. I know she will be missed, but if she was in your life you were blessed. God must have needed a very special angel.

God Bless
