

Paul Henry Mewes

December 4, 1962 - March 1, 2026

Paul Henry Mewes, age 63, of Wheatfield, Indiana passed away on Sunday, March 1, 2026. Paul was born on December 4, 1962, in Chicago, Illinois to Ernest and Maud Mewes. Paul is survived by his wife of 35 years, Paula; two brothers, Harold and Ernest Jr.; three sons, David (Beth) Kamano, Bradley (Lisa) Kamano, and Randall Mewes; and 8 grandchildren, Ella, Andrew, Jane, Henry, Dexter, Benjamin, Margaret and Mabel.

Paul was a highly decorated member of the bowling community in Northwest Indiana and Chicagoland area. He was involved in every aspect of bowling: competing at an elite level in his younger years, drilling and fixing bowling balls for countless people, coaching high school teams, and running scholarship tournaments for youth bowlers.

Paul was generous with his time, always willing to pause his own responsibilities to help others whenever they needed support. No matter how busy his schedule was, he made people feel heard and valued, offering thoughtful advice, practical assistance, or simply a listening ear. His genuine care created a sense of trust and comfort, and many people relied on him not just for help, but for encouragement and understanding.

Paul always enjoyed going to Wisconsin to fish, finding peace and excitement in its quiet lakes. Casting his line beneath wide open skies gave him a sense of calm that was hard to find elsewhere. Whether he was reeling in a catch or simply sitting patiently in his boat, Paul appreciated the simple rhythm of the experience. For him, fishing wasn't just a hobby, it was a cherished tradition and a chance to reconnect with family.

A visitation will be held on Friday, March 6, 2026, from 4 p.m. – 8 p.m. at Burns Funeral Home, 10101 Broadway, Crown Point, Indiana 46307. Please visit Paul Mewes online obituary and guestbook at www.burnsfuneral.com.
