It's so hard to say good bye. We would do our chats over the phone sometimes 2 or 3 times a day. We always laughed and talked about so many things. Friends since we moved to Lake of the Seasons close to you and Jim, Carole and John. Playing dominoes and outings and don't forget our coffee clutches. It was so wonderful that we all as former Illinois residents all became friends with our husbands. And our kids were friends too. I believe God put us together for a reason. I will cherish all the memories, the friendship, like family, that we all shared!

Paulette, you are dearly missed and loved! You were always a very dear friend. A friend I dearly miss! ❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏🙏
