

Payton Renee Himo

May 4, 2012 - September 30, 2024

Payton Renee Himo – Age 12, of Portage, IN passed away September 30, 2024, at Riley Children’s Hospital after a lifelong courageous battle with her heart.

She is survived by her mother, Matilda Perez-Himo; father, Shawn Himo; grandmothers: Sonia Torres and Judy Cagle; aunts, Elizabeth Norman, Yolanda (Matt) McCulloch; uncle, Jason (Raquel) Himo; numerous cousins, family and friends. She was preceded in death by her grandfathers: Antonio Perez and Thomas Cagle.

Payton attended Aylesworth Elementary School in Portage when possible. She was a very talented little girl who was a whiz with Lego sets, arts & crafts and playing games. She was a ray of sunshine, always smiling and laughing and there was not a person that she met that did not become her friend. To know Payton was to love Payton. A braver person you will never meet.

The family would like to express their deepest appreciation to the following: Lindsey DeWilde who was her teacher during hospital stays, Portage Helping Hands, and the countless therapists that were by her side along her journey.

Visitation will be held Monday, October 7th from 3:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at Burns Funeral Chapel, 10101 Broadway, Crown Point, IN. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, October 8th at 11:00 a.m. at the funeral home with Pastor Juaquin Rodriguez officiating. Burial to follow at Calvary Cemetery in Portage. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the family.

So true. God decided before she was born that she would be is own special angel, a class that accepts only truly the special ones. She didn't know how many people she inspired to be a better person To be more charitable, to be more humble and forgiving and less self centered over their own issues which seemed so small in comparison. You will always be unique and special in my mind, and I believe I have been made better by just having the privledge of knowing her and her mom. Rest in peace amongst his heavenly choirs, Peyton
