“ *Lela and family, My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I am sorry to say I do not have more than a handful of memories with Ravi, but I am very happy to know their daughter, and count her as a friend. It is a sad milestone to mark the passing of a parent, and my heart is with her and Justin, as well as his family. I wish that soon through the grief and feelings of loss, they all begin to remember the best moments of his life, and share them with each other, and as many others as possible. In this way he will live on, and never be forgotten.
