“ Dear Carol and family,
I wanted to let you know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I am so sorry for your loss. Ray was my first cousin, his father (William Virgil) and my father were brothers (Roy John and Alice Barley). I was the Bartley with black ringlets and Carole had/has blond hair. I have wonderful memories of childhood get togethers and Ray was a big part of those times.

“ Condolences to the Bartley family. Our thoughts and prayers go out to your whole family. Psalms 147:3 says God, "heals the broken hearted, and binds up their wounds." May God bring you comfort and peace.

“ My most sincere sympathy to the entire Bartley family. It was an absolute honor and a pleasure doing business with a man of such integrity. I'm going to miss his phone calls, my most favorite of which were ones just to chat about happenings, either work related or personal. The world could have used a few more Ray Bartleys around.
May his memory remain strong in all of your hearts.

“ Today my heart will never beat the same. I have lost the greatest man I have ever known. Although, I have gained the best guardian angel. You have always been there for me whenever I needed you. You worked so hard throughout your life working two jobs to make sure we had everything that we wanted and more. You would always make sure that when I was working that I had food to eat or money in my pocket. You are the kind of man that I want my kids to be. Thoughtful, giving, smart, and loyal. You have been my rock in my life the person who I could always call and talk to. My life may never be the same again but it puts me at ease knowing that you are watching over me. I will never let you down dad. I will forever keep you in my heart and soul. I am thankful for everything you did for me. I will always be your little girl. Love you always Shelly

I am so saddened to hear of the loss of Ray. I was an employee in a building he managed and spent many mornings chatting with Ray. Ray talked with such pride about his family and his wife Carol. He was simply a great guy and will be greatly missed.
