“ I remember staying the night over at your house in Glen Park. Franny and I had a serious case of the giggles when we should be sleeping. I remember your Dad commenting from your parent's bedroom. I think it went like this: "Have your heard about sleep? It's when you close your eyes and keep your mouths shut."

Looking back now I know he was just trying to get some sleep before he went to work. <3

“ Papa, Keira and I miss you very much. You were simply the best of the best. I'm so lucky to have had you as my grandpa. You loved me for exactly who I am and never stopped worrying about my family no matter how old we grew to be. I love you more than words could ever express. I look forward to seeing you again one day. Forever, Jasmine <3
