“ Ric drove his Texas barbecue grill down to Edwardsville and roasted a pig for his nephew's graduation. He never let guests go hungry, and was always the last one to eat. He had a soft place in his heart for animals and enjoyed his morning coffee in the stable by the horses. Mary Jo and the kids were his heart and soul and he was their rock. Just some of our great memories! Martha & Tom

“ Ric was a delight to work with. He was good natured and always took time to stop and chat. He was incredibly proud of his family and loved to share the latest update or success each had achieved. We will miss his wry humor and day-to-day interactions. Prayers for the family.

“ Working with Ric was a pleasure...our frequent conversations revealed a man of integrity, grit and principles. He had a bevy of stories about past experiences and had a great sense of humor. What a voracious appetite, man that guy could put food away like no other! He was proud of his family, and frequently talked about them.

I send his family my deepest condolences...he has returned home and will continue to watch over you.
