“ My baby brother. I smelled your sweatshirt today that you wore a day before you died. It still smells like you. I just wish you were here with us. Mom misses you like crazy. She will forever be filled with pain. She will miss your company. I will miss you calling me Shanny and hugging me and laughing with me when I was in Hobart. I will miss your help on March Madness soon too! I wish I could just rewind time, even to just 2.5 weeks ago and stayed with you every second. I should have helped you more. I should have called you more. All I can do now is cry and miss you and wish I could rewind. I love you always and forever.

“ *Dear Audrey, & girls,
My prayers are going out for all of you. Audrey, we talked many times and shared stories. I know how crushed your heart must be right now. Being there this evening, speaking with you and the girls left me feeling so hurt for all of you. I know how much you all loved him and prayed for his healing. I wish that there were something that I could do but there are no words, nothing that I can do to make this any easier. I am so very sorry for your loss. My heart hurts for all of you. May God bring you some comfort and ease your pain.*

“ Audrey, my heart is breaking for you. I cannot imagine your pain and grief. I well remember your kind and compassionate spirit from many years ago. My parents thought so highly of you and your family, and I'm sure that anyone and everyone that has ever known you thinks the same. I know there are no words that take away the pain of your loss, but I want you to know that I, and many more, are praying for you and your family. Much love to you and the girls,
Roberta
