“ There are so many memories I can share, you weren't only our big brother, but our first friend, confidant, and definitely our “go to guy” it still doesn't feel real. I keep hoping that I will get a response from the text and Facebook messages I have sent to you, and your just in Michigan and have shitty cell phone reception. I love you big brother. Please watch over all of us.

“ So sad, so tragic. Our sincere condolences to your family. Prayers ascending for God's peace, comfort and understanding for your family in your time of need. Alan will be missed by all but not forgotten, especially those who saw him grow from a little boy into a man. It hits close to home for Annette, Heather and i since our son was taken by a train also. He was a very special person who will always be close and dear to our hearts. God's peace Rick, Evelyn, Jenny, Freddie and all the Sapper family.

“ Rich I am completely lost for words. Your spirit of giving to WorkOne, the community, your boys, the Scouts without ANY thought to your comfort and your ego truly made those around you yearn to do more. I knew you as Rich from working with you and Al from the scouts. Your devotion to your boys and the scouts was an amazing testament to the world that we needed to give a damn about things that matter. You fought for the little man and woman. Always. We are better because you gifted us with your passion, wit and stories of leather pants from your European metal tour. I won't miss the Slayer but I will miss the conversations

“ Rich...you are one of the COOLEST dudes I know. It was such a blessing for me to have gotten to know you for all these years and to get to call you FRIEND. I am just in shock realizing how your absence is going to impact my life. Coming to work won't be the same. Going to community meetings won't be the same. Sharing crazy thoughts & ideas on how to make NWI (even the world) a better place won't be the same. For now each will be done without you/missing you. Minus the Rich-isms. Yes...the world has lost a wonderful and innovative perspective (on things) with your loss. But at the same time, is all the better because we got to spend time with those wonderful and innovative perspectives of yours. Thanks for visiting amongst us and leaving such a wonderful legacy: your ideas, your contributions, your love, and those beautiful boys who you are just CRAZY about! Godspeed, my friend. Miss you. Love you.

“ I remember first meeting Al at Stoney Run when the cubscouts were camping and my twin grandsons who are now 11years old expressed an interest in scouting.He told my niece who had a son in his den that we could come out as well even though the twins were not officially scouts yet.He was such a kind and patient man and had a true interest in the boys and you could see the love he had for his own boys. He was willing to help out anyone who was having trouble with their tents. He led a night hike that was so fun even for a grandma like me. Such a kind soul; he will be greatly missed.
