“ Growing up, Petri was more like brother my age than cousin. Michael & Erik were like the big brothers I didn't have. Sometimes, I would just walk from my house to Aunt Riita's house just to be around them. When I walked in, she cared for me like I was hers. When I got older and had a family, she invited me to her church Bethlehem Lutheran in Chesterton. When she introduced us as her family, they always turned to Melissa to say how Aunt Riita's a wonderful person. Aunt Riita would have a smug look when she'd tell them, "No, Roy Anthony is my nephew. Can't you see the family resemblance?" My children love her so much. We love her so much.

“ When we were very young I remember visiting your home and your Mom was such a gracious host. I remember feeling like I was in the Brady Bunch house and I knew from that moment what I wanted in my home life as an adult. It was a defining visit for me. I really wish I could have spent time with her but her short presence influenced my life. I'm very sorry for your loss. Her presence will never die.
