“ *The first time I met Bob was many years ago at your Mom&Dad,s. Two things come to mind. His smile and giggle, and that he poured Ketchup on that beautiful deep dish Chicago pizza. He was a good man who loved you dearly. He will always be with you.I know that your Mother and Grandmother will have their arms around you giving you the strength to survive and continue your journey. I am so happy that your big brother is there for you. Everyone in your family has wonderful memories of you and Bob.I love you and wish you only the best. Listen to your heart. “ When I think of Bob, I'll remember his love of fishing, Captain Bob at the helm of his pontoon, Cake(nuff said), his laugh, and his smile. I will think of the night we spent on the roof of the penthouse in Florida with Bob and Deb looking out onto the ocean knowing it would never be the same again. My heart is breaking for Deb, my husband, Stew, and the rest of Bob's family and the friends that loved him. Bob, breathe easy now, until we meet again.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Recollections: Bob always did have an infectious laugh. My Grandmother (McKeigen family) told us when we met at Morton HS that we were 3rd cousins. The last I saw Bob was in Frankfurt Germany. He was an MP on the Berlin train and brought me a Russian gun belt for my birthday. Always thinking of others. Circa September 1974-76 I hope I'm remembering that right. Rest in peace Bob.

“ Prayers for my sister Deb and Bob's brother Jimmy. Many fond memories through the years...I met Bob when I was 14 and he had a cast and we went to lunch at a restaurant in Hessville and I remember he had catsup on his fries and got it all over his cast....beautiful smile he always had. Blessed to have known him and glad he is not suffering any longer...be strong my sister. Marcia and family
