“ 22 years ago met Rob, through 4 shops & he was my only artist, both arms fully sleeved, hands, chest, both lower legs..& tattooed numerous of my family & friends. Was an amazing artist that became a friend outside of tattooing. The hardest thing is now my next tattoo, a memorial for him. But the relationship, experience, & quality will not be anything as having the master do it. I'm just one tiny soul touched by him! Miss you bro, till the other side one day to see ya again 🙄🤝

“ Rob was a wonderful man. He did my very first tattoo 20 years ago and in June of this year my most recent tattoo. I loved his new "shop" in his home. He was so proud of it and did a great job with it. I really enjoyed our 4.5 hours talk. He was such a kind Christian man who loved to talk about God with everyone . I know he is up there now having wonderful conversations with God and everyone! I am so proud to carry his art and I will always wear it proudly and tell everyone how wonderful he was. Fly high Rob, you will be missed and always remembered. You are now a guardian Angel for all of us here. My deepest sympathies to Joyce and your sons and mon. God bless you all. Debbie DeVault
