“ Bob was one of the best freinds and golfing partners I ever had the chance to know. He had a tremendous sense of humor and took great pride in his cooking skills, especially barbecuing. He was so proud of his family and rightfully so. He could tell a story with the best of them and if you believed his childhood memories, he did well to achieve the success he made for himself. I will miss his presence and friendship but will always have a smile when I think of him. And hope to win back the Green Jacket from him some day.

“ Bob was a fantastic mentor and colleague. He "patiently" taught me most of what I know about hot mill defects and could be counted on to "tell it like it is" - straight up. I will always remember the pride he took in his work and, most importantly, in his family. I will miss him both professionally and personally.

I will smile each and every time I think of Bob.

“ I was truly saddened upon hearing the passing of Bob. My deepest sympathies go out to the entire Hebda family. Bob and I worked together back in the early 1980's at Inland Steel's 1 & 2 Cold Strip as electricians. We had a great group of guys who got along pretty well at work and which of course carried over to several memorable golf outings. One quick memory I have of Bob is whenever he and our fellow coworker, the late Chuck Leathers were teamed up in the same foursome, they always had a friendly competition of who would come out on top. Although Bob was just a bit better golfer than Chuck, Chuck always would start trash talking Bob and bet him that he was going to beat him. I don't think that ever happened because if and when Chuck started getting close to Bob's score, Bob would start his own style of trash talk which he new would unravel Chuck every time, and It did. That was always fun to watch them two go at it. Even though Bob and I went our separate ways at work, I would still run into him off and on throughout the years at the Inland 25 year picnic or somewhere in Crown Point, where we both lived. We would just pick up talking about old times and family updates. His conversations would always turn to what his 3 boys were up to and you could tell how proud he was of all of them. What a great guy. I feel so bad that I will not be able to attend his wake or funeral since I will be out of state but my thoughts are with his family. Take care. Tracy Jeremiah

“ Bob was the greatest brother in law I could have asked for. I enjoyed golfing with him, and will always remember the golf trips that went on with a group of guys. Bob never had a bad word to say about anyone.
My sister married a great guy...

“ Bobby will be missed. I think back how we shared good times as kids on Northcote. Time flies, people grow up and have families of their own. My 3 boys remember wrestling and laughs with the 3 Hebda boys...Ron and I are apart of those great memories and too are very sad about this news. Please know we would love to be in Indiana right now to extend our sympathy and love for our extended family. A family that my parents also loved.

God Bless Bobby, and his family. Our prayers and thoughts are with all of you.

Including Carolyn, David and Eddy and their families.
