Tribute Wall

“ John,

News of your death has left me stricken with sadness. Grief is compounded by the passing of another dear friend on the same day.

You honored me by calling me your “best friend”. I will remember your nobility of spirit, your brilliant intellect, quick wit and spiritual depth. There are few in this world with whom I have been able to engage like I have with you. I will forever be made poorer by your absence.

You were meant to be tall, straight of limb and filled with a radiant presence. Those of us who knew you experienced your radiant presence, and those of us who believe, as you do, that God restores what was lost when Paradise gave way to brokenness, know that you are no longer twisted by disease, troubled by the inadequacies of the health care system and that you stand a full seven feet in height.

You love the Lord Jesus Christ in a way that few others do. We who remain and occupy until He comes in glory bless Him for giving us your friendship and love.

Miss you,

Ken and April##imported-begin##Ken Buck##imported-end##
