“ There are so many amazing characteristics that describe Mr. Robert. He was very kind, loving, giving, friendly, adorable, & comical, to say the least. He had a witty sense of humor, which is what I remember the most, because he was quite capable of making me laugh. I am very grateful to GOD that I was given the pleasure of knowing Mr. Robert for a little more than a year, not only as his caregiver, but also as his friend. He was a joy to be around, & I miss him very much! There's one more thing I need to mention. Mr. Robert consistently prayed all throughout the day, each & everyday, for his family, his friends, his housemates, & for anyone whom GOD placed upon his heart, & what a privilege it was to pray for him as well! So, on behalf of everyone from Independent Loving Care, let me say that we truly love & miss Mr. Robert. May he rest in peace forever more!

“ Bob was a hard working man, he wasnt ashamed of his cracked callused hands. He could lay bricks with the best of them, work on cars and was always willing to help, even strangers. He loved his family always, kept a strong faith, and knew how to have fun. He stood up for what was right. Hunted and fished, joked around, cooked, always gave someone a smile, and tried his best always. What more could you ask of a man? God saved a good spot for him. Rest in peace now.

“Reading the fb posts this week about Uncle Bob, I noticed three small but powerful words were used to describe him. His faith was mentioned; someone said that he was cheerful and had an attitude of hope, and last but not least that he was loved.

Dad, I love you and miss you already. You are in my heart forever. Through tough times you always stayed upbeat, kept smiling and always had hope I admire that.

I love and miss you Dad! I know you're up there bragging about your daughters, grand kids & future great grand child. Thank you for being my Dad.

O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of His faithful one. Your servant, O Lord, I am. You have loosened my bonds. I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.
