“ Janet and family, my sincere condolences on the passing of Stutes. Heaven has gained a sparkling eyed, smiling angel and I hope you are sustained by all the good memories, laughs, gags, jokes, etc. that I know he gave you through your life with him. Such a good friend to all and a smile that always meant something was up his sleeve, but with a warm heart and love in each gesture. RIP Stutes and keep that smile coming through our memories. Prayers and love.

“ It has been a while since Bob and I were classmates. The thing I remember most about "Stutes" was that little twinkle in his eye and that smile when he was about to do something mischievous (and that was fairly often). Very sad to hear about this today...my condolences to his wife and family. Great guy, always a lot of fun, an even better classmate!

“ We grew up together. Midge used to load us all in her old green Plymouth and head for the beach. Today, she would get a bucket of tickets. There was about a dozen of us, little heads everywhere, and the seat belt had yet to be invented. 😂. Bob and I used to have BB gun wars. Our moms could never figure out why we had welts all over our bodies. If only they knew! They always worried that we would shoot our eyes out. I don't know why we never did! Everytime we met over the years we would laugh about it.. He will be missed.
