“ I have pleasant memories of the laughter and giggles Roger would provoke in almost any situation. Folks would smile when he arrived because humor accompanied him wherever he went. I am so sorry to hear the news that he has passed. I remember my cousin with great fondness.

I have lots of fond memories of growing up with Roger. He was always fun to be around, was a great comic, and a gifted imitator. We greatly enjoyed his summer visits to Kentucky. In later years we were fellow pharmacists and would compare notes about our careers—he always had an amusing, witty remark to make.
Sadly he will be missed. Marilyn

Robert Mayo Phipps is my second cousin. Humor and witticisms are a part of the Phipps DNA, I believe. Sorry to hear of his passing.
