“ My Uncle, my dad's brother, Uncle Ronny, was my favorite Uncle. He and my Uncle Tommy were the only two Roderick's who checked on our family after my dad passed away in 1966. Uncle Ronny was also there to assist my mom and later myself got employed at Rand McNally in Hammond. For all of this I have been greatly appreciative. I have hoped to visit him in Demote after this pandemic was over. What a great man!

“ I was spending the weekend with uncle Ronnie and aunt Phyllis and Rhonda. Riding tricycles both of which were Rhondas. She wasn't too happy about that so uncle Ronnie ran and bought me one. Then everyone was happy Ha. His corny jokes used to make me laugh so hard and he knew it. The more we laugh the more he would crank them out!
