“ My husband and I just wanted to extend our deepest sympathy to the family and friends who have lost their beloved Ronald. We have lost ones very dear to us and know the pain felt at such times. In 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it brings out that \"the God of all comfort\" comforts us so that we might be able to help comfort others. We wanted to share with you what has been, and has continued to be, a true source of comfort and encouragement to us. Nothing can surpass that of the hopes and promises held out to all through God's Word. Through its pages, we read of the the promise that is brought out in John 5:28,29 where Christ Jesus said \"the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out\". He demonstrated that he was not only given the power to do this, but also has the desire, with the resurrection of his friend Lazarus. (John 11:11-44) We also have the hope that is brought out in Revelation 21:3,4 and Isaiah 25:8 where is states that \"death will be no more\" that God will \"swallow up death forever\". We sincerely hope that going over these accounts and thinking about them will bring you some comfort as you face this loss. Please continue to look to \"the God of all comfort\" and to the love and support of those around you. Again, we are so sorry for your loss. With Sincere Sympathy,
Mike and Becky###imported-begin##Mike and Becky##imported-end##
