“ *Dear Uncle Ron,
Remembering the song that you made up for me as a child (and still sang to me in my 60's!) about little Pammy Ann sitting in a frying pan). All of our wonderful celebrations, especially Christmas Eve. So full of life, whether fishing on your boat or setting up the Christmas train display or just striking a pose for a photo. Your 60+ years of love and friendship with Auntie Toots. Always there for all of your family. As Tasha said to me today, every single one of us knew, never doubted, how very much you loved us.
I was always so proud of you-- a police officer, a leader in forensic investigation, a teacher and more. A man of integrity with the heart and soul of a poet. You made friends everywhere, and were even called the "Mayor" of your block in LOFS. Goodbye my wonderful Uncle, I am thankful to have shared time with you. So many memories will live on in my heart. May your rest now be easy and filled with love and peace. Love, Pammy*

“ Dad, The world already knows how much I loved you. From my playhouse you built for me, nights of watching creature features protected on your lap to being my first hero. Through my entire life you have been there for me. I'm glad at your journey to heaven I was there for you. I thank you and feel honored to be your daughter. I will forevermore be your Princess.
