“ My condolences to the family. I will miss my old buddy. He never wavered from the Cirrencione way and a hug.. I remember him saving Rosie, his dog, life from drowning in Iowa, when he tossed me his shotgun and then jumped in to the creek fully clothed... always remember the memories..

“ I enjoyed working with and knowing Roy. He was the kind of guy that would show you if you wanted to learn. He was very Macho, yet a kind soul. He would hug you if he liked you or hit you if he didn't. One of the good old guys that paved the way for us in the mill.
