“ Sandy I know you are happy now. You are back in Lee's arms. I know ater I went back to work we didn't get to see each other. We had good times at Ridge View. Remember when Lee tie all those ties for Latty because he didn't know how to. Remember when I made Lee come over and have Christmas dinner with us when you had your Dad at the hospital in Minnesota. We were family and that's what family does. Every time I go by your house on Brown Street I can still see you Lee out in the yard. Am so glad I have my memories. Rest in peace sweet Angel. Love you. “ Sandie and Lee were like family to me almost from the moment we met. I remember sitting at her kitchen table sharing coffee and hashing out whatever my latest big problem was for hours, she was always ready and willing to listen and to support whatever decision I made. She was a great friend and I will miss her dearly. RIP Sandie, the world has lost a wonderful woman.

Sending hugs to Mike and Kristine. I know how hard it is to lose a parent, no matter how long they've been sick or how long they struggled, there's never a good time for them to go and we're never ready for the day it comes. Don't forget: We're here for both of you.
