“ My sympathies to the family of Sandy. She was a very special lady. Will always remember her beautiful smile and sunshine she spread as she volunteered at St. Marys. She did many good deeds and always willing to help me too. May she rest in peace.

Tim and family. Love to you all. I will always remember Sandy . She was a willing to help and be there for me in my young years just out of high school. Willing to take me to the train station so I could get to work on Chicago. Lived with Tim & Sandy in the farmhouse. Such sweet memories. Our last phone call just a few weeks ago was a talk down memory lane. Will miss you. But we have the blessed hope we will see you again!! Love you
