“ I knew Sarah during the Summer of 2011, when she briefly lived in Seguin, Texas with her aunt Elsa. She was a fun, silly person to be around and everybody loved to be around her. We lost touch when she moved back to Alabama and I never heard from her again. It wasn't until I saw her Obituary while surfing the web one day, three years later, that I knew she had passed. Sarah was a very special person and I always wished her the best. Even though my wish did not come true, I know she is in heaven being her same silly self and putting smiles on everybody she knows.
