“ The old saying, you come from great stock was so evident in my Aunt Sharron's life. Her Mom and Dad were amazing people, citizens, deeply trusting in their faith and all the good attributes of honesty and integrity. The memories with Aunt Sharron in my Grandparent's home are always with me/us.

Man, could she whip up our Great Grandmother's recipe for chocolate cake!

A lifetime of wonderful memories!

“ A remarkable woman, mother, friend who cared about the kids more than her job. I was proud to know her and be so close with her daughter who she raised to be a mirror of herself; beautiful, loving and more giving than anyone I have ever met.

“ Hello and our most sincere condolences to all the good folks of Miller Beach. My memory is of our first trip to the dunes when daughter Amy was about two years old as was Annie Rose. We had recently met Bob Ward's old friend from Bryan by way of Lone Mountain, TN. So, we made the journey west from Toledo and found friends for life.

The Rose address at the time was in the state park. Sharron was a beautiful young woman with a zest for life and surrounded by many good friends. Soon Rose friends became our friends and we were fortunate to return many times. The people and the beach have continued to make Roseville a favorite destination for Toledo folks and Sharron was a large part of that friendship. Good people make good memories which are a great source of strength in tough times!

Annie - special thoughts of you and we will keep you in the prayer book.

*So, our dear Sharron, rest in peace and as said in the Irish Prayer "-
-- until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of his hand."*

“ There is a unique bonding of family and friends within the "Rose Community" !
With the loss of a VERY IMPORTANT MEMBER an irreplaceable void has been created.
Sharron was beautiful inside and out, gentle and sweet. She will live in our hearts leaving joyful memories of a life well lived.
Annie, your mom wouldn't want you to grieve but rather celebrate the loving relationship you had together. Keep strong!
Bless everyone in the "Rose Community".
Love,
Harvey and Judy

“ Nancy said it so well! We will all miss Sharron's light and love and words of wisdom. But what a legacy she created in her fantastic daughter Ann, who carries on all her beautiful attributes. A true love of life - expressed by living every single moment to its fullest - more genuine friendships than one can count, the most generous and loving spirit I've seen and experienced in anyone...and the list goes on. Although it is a very tough time for those who loved her right now, Sharron has paved the way and taught us all many life lessons to help us through. Peace and blessings to Ann, Dave, Sharron's family and many friends who will miss her beautiful smile and spirit, but who will carry her in their hearts forever.

All I can say is I had so much fun with that woman. Will never forget how we danced the night away while on a training program for high school teachers/counselors at Indiana State University. She was such a joy to know. Thanks Sharron for being such a good friend.

“ We always want one more day, don't we? Well Sharron, you had a lifetime full of beautiful days and I am happy you are at peace now. Rest easy until we meet again. Ann - life has forever changed but the memories you have and the support you are receiving from your dad, friends and family will carry you thru all of your days. I have so many fond memories of your mother - we had some fun times, didn't we? I will miss her always...she was a special person who so many beautiful attributes that you yourself possess like compassion, generosity, kindness, humor, and a passion to live life and harvest lifelong friendships. All my love to, dad, and all of the friends and family members who were lucky enough to be loved by your mom too, we have all been blessed by an angel. Nancy Galloway-Engel
