Shirley Mae Tinich, at the age of 89 passed away on February 3, 2025 in her Crown Point home with her family by her side. She was born and raised in Hammond, Indiana. She loved the Lord, reading her bible and Daily Bread devotional, and was a prayer warrior. She attended Suburban Bible and Bethel Church in Crown Point. Also, she enjoyed going “up north” to Wisconsin with her husband, children and friends where many memories were made. She was married to Rich, the love of her life, for 65 years. Shirley will be greatly missed and we know one day we will see her again.
