

Sophia Grace Stephan

July 1, 2020 - July 19, 2021

In loving memory of our princess Sophia Grace Stephan

“Dearest baby, please know that our greatest blessing was having you.”

Sophia Grace, 12 months old, of Crown Point IN passed peacefully in the arms of her loving parents on July 19th, 2021. In her short year, Sophia survived open heart surgery at 4 months old, which transformed her into a strong and silly little girl that thrived both physically and mentally. Sophia laughed and smiled abundantly throughout her 12 months; bringing joy and happiness to everyone she encountered. Although her time with family was short, she touched many lives, inspired all of us with her strength and courage, and is loved deeply by those around her.

Princess Sophia enjoyed snuggles with mommy and daddy, visiting her grandparents, watching Sesame Street, “tasting the wind”, and being told “I love you”.

Sophia is blessed with a large and loving family. She is, and always will be loved deeply by her mother and father, Stephanie Black and Joey Stephan, her loving and protecting pet siblings Bailey and Sammie, her grandparents Andy and Connie Black, Joe and Nancy Stephan, aunts Kristin (Tommy) Theil, Kristen (Brian) Hixenbaugh, uncles Jeffrey (Jessica) Stephan and Joshua Black, and cousins Carly, Brady and Riley Hixenbaugh and Cora Theil.

In lieu of flowers, we would be pleased to have you support the Down Syndrome Association of NWI – www.dsanwi.org/donate

“ To Joey Stephan and Stephanie Black our condolences go to you both on your precious Princess Sophia. She was sure a beautiful girl and so glad that we got to meet her. She's in the arms of Jesus and I'm sure Oma is looking after her along with her other great grandparents. Our prayers are with you all. Uncle Cliff and Aunt Monica Graham
