“ Boss, this is what i called spiro when i worked with dean at the bodyshop many years ago. Both spiro and his brother george use to always take me to there house where we sat and talked and always had a mezza. they treated me like i was there son and i felt like i had three fathers at the time, you couldnt ask for better people. it was an honnor to have known \"BOSS\" spiro, my deepest sympathy goes out to all family members and i know in my heart that spiro will indeed have a great place in heaven. \"boss\", you will be missed but never forgotten##imported-begin##steven vorgias##imported-end##
