

Stephanie Lyn Brown

May 23, 1977 - February 20, 2023

Stephanie Lyn Zills Brown, age 45 of Portage, passed away suddenly on February 20, 2023. Born to James Phillip Zills and Marsha Hall on May 23, 1977, she was a lifelong Portage resident and graduate of Portage High School, class of 1995, where she was active on the softball team. Stephanie married her lifelong friend, Matthew Brown, on April 23, 2005 and together they enjoyed traveling and spending time with family. She was a true blue Colts and Cubs fan and would try to attend every game. She was a professional server at several restaurants, most recently at the House of Kobe. Stephanie also spent several years as a caregiver. She always looked forward to baking and cooking for her friends and in-laws, especially on holidays. Stephanie will be greatly missed.

She was preceded in death by her father-James; sister-Tracy. Stephanie is survived by her husband; sisters-Victoria Zills, Nicole (Scott) Price; step father-James Hall; step-siblings-Tracy, Dawn, Keith (Lori); father and mother-in-law -Kenneth (Karen) Brown; numerous nieces and nephews-Dominic Pagan, Sydney Neyhart, Joe, Ariana, Maddie, Dylan, Megan, Kelcy, Mycah and Tyler. Stephanie always rolled with the Crimson Tide thanks to her numerous aunts and cousins in Alabama.

Stephanie's family would like to invite you to a Memorial Visitation for her on Sunday, February 26, 2023, from 2-5:00 p.m., at Burns Funeral Home, 701 East 7th Street, Hobart. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the family. www.burnsfuneral.com.

“ Stephanie loved her Matt so very much. She loved to bake us cookie and cakes at quaker steak and lube. If a Cubs game came on she would focus on her work but still keep updated on her game. She was a treasure to know and will rest in peace with her best buddy dee(dionne).
