“ Our Deepest Sympathies to Karen & Krystin and entire Blimm Family. Life is not fair. We lose too many people that bring so much to all of us and make the world a better place. Steve was one of those special people that brightened up the room when he stepped in.

I've known Steve since Junior High and he had a personality that was larger than life. Steve was always full of life. Steve Loved life and Loved his family deeply. His life was his family. Over the years I was privileged to share share many milestones in our lives.

Marriage, vacations, golf, bowling, birth of our children and their marriages the past several years. If you were Steve's friend, you were friends for life. Steve will definitely be missed. I can see him talking to Elvis in heaven and Steve asking Elvis, "did you see my Elvis performance? Knowing Steve, he wants an answer, Steve says "So what do you think Elvis??"

God-Speed on your new journey. Till we see each other again!

My sympathies go out to the Blimm family. I remember Steve from high school and the baseball team. A loud and thunderous voice with an easy going personality made Steve who he was; a super and fond memory that i still have some forty years later.

“ Steve was always a great guy and it was always a pleasure to talk to him. Didn't have a whole lot of contact in the mill with him but when I did he always made me laugh. I used to be a part time Travel Agent and one time he came to me and wanted me to find a vacation to the Caribbean for him and his wife and daughter. Guess they had a great time and he talked about it every time he saw me for years. His Elvis was phenomenal! Our world was definitely a better place with him in it. His Family has our thoughts and prayers. Rest in peace Steve. Mike and Carol Young

“ A smile came over my face last night when I thought of Krystins wedding day. Steve looked so handsome in his tux and so proud to watch his daughter get ready as father of the beautiful bride. However, Steve was unsure of the limo arrival. He kept asking Krystin are you sure it's supposed to pick us up?! The limo never came, and here comes Steve driving Karen and Krystin to the church in the Prius minutes before the ceremony! He was always so proud of Krystin and will continue to be. My thoughts and prayers are with the family as you mourn, and I pray you find some comfort in the memories. May God bless Steve as he welcomes him into his kingdom.
